FIFTH DAYS SESSION OF THE BALTI-MORE CONFERENCE.

Spirited Discussion Over the Adu Mr. Werdman-Memorial Services Last Night.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 2-(Special.)-Upon announcement of the death of Mrs. James S. Gardner, of Staunton, wife of Rev. Dr. Gardner, the conference appointed a committee con-sisting of Drs. Boyd and Carson to attend the funeral.

having arrived the Junior Bishop an-nounced that the ministers were to elect six delegates to the General Conference. and the laymen an equal number. The laymen sat apart from the ministers in casting their votes. The laymen elected were Mr. Robert Magruder, of Baltimore: were Mr. Robert Magruder, of Baltimore;
Mr. J. A. Robinson, of Morefield, W.
Va.; Hon. M. L. Walton, of Morefield, W.
Va.; Mr. G. L. Stevens, of Roanoke; Mr.
George R. Hill, of Alexandria, and Mr.
J. P. Houck, of Harrisonburg. Only two clerical delegates were elected on first ballott-Rev. Rumsey Smithson and Rev.
Collins Denny. It was too late for a second ballot to-day.

ADMITTED.

Quite a discussion arose over the admission into the conference of Rev. Mr. Werdman, of the Reformed Episcopal Church. Mr. Werdman has been supplying the pulpit of Frederick-Avenue, Baltimore, for six months past. He had been once a minister of the Protestant Episcopal Church, then of the Reformed Episcopal Church. Dissatisfied with both these he sought rest from uncertainty in the itinerancy. His apparent inconstancy was urged against him, but his Presiding Elder, Dr. Rodgers, and others defended him and spoke of his general efficiency. Upon a vote he was admitted, and upon assuming the special obligations of the Methodist Church his orders as elder were recognized.

STRICKEN OUT. STRICKEN OUT.

In calling up the report of the Board of Education, which had been tabled, of Education, which had been tabled, the clause recommending an annual collection in behalf of the Wesleyan Female Institute was stricken out. This collection will be as heretofore applied to Randolph-Macon College.

The conference adjourned earlier than usual in order to visit Randolph-Macon College. Although the invitation of Dr. Smith was thoroughly appreciated, the associations of Frederickshurg being dearer to some of the members—too young it may be to appreciate a good thing—they remained here. Dr. Smith expressed a deep regret that the whole town, and especially the ladies visiting the conference, could not be accommodated in the somewhat limited room at the college.

To-night memorial services were held

To-night memorial services were held in the church. As five members of the conference have died, the whole evening was devoted to memoirs and addresses relative to the deceased ministers.

VISITING RANDOLPH-MACON.

Members of the Baltimore Conference Well Pleased With the College.

ASHLAND, VA., April 2.-(Special.)-The Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, numbering 226, arrived here from Fredericksburg by special train. The train was provided by 25, arrived here from Fredericksburk of special train. The train was provided by Randolph-Macon College, whose guests the visiting ministers were. They inspected the campus and buildings, and were given a lunch and returned to Fredericksburg by the 5 o'clock train. The gentlemen expressed themselves as well pleased with their visit and reception.

tion. Mr. George R. Nixon, the new postmas-ter, to-day received his bond papers from the department at Washington, and im-mediately executed them before Mayor J. W. Taylor. They were sent to the Postmaster-General to-night, and he will enter upon the discharge of his duties as his commission is received, which

One of the most destructive fires that has occurred here for years broke out in the One of the most described on the securred hare for years broke out in the printing-rooms of the News Publishing Company, on Main street, early yesterday morning. The fire soon spread to the drugstore of F. O. Miller, on the south, and the furniture-rooms of Funk & Hay, on the north, and these establishments were destroyed. Several adjoining buildings were also damaged by the fire and water. Losses are estimated as follows: Paulkner Brothers, $600; Funk & Ray, $12,000, insurance $7,500; J. O. Faulkner, $5,000, insurance $2,500; F. O. Miller, $600, covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.
